Remember, Celebrate, Act!

YOUTH ART COMPETITION

Dr. King was an American pastor, activist, humanitarian, and leader in the modern Civil Rights Movement. He used the power of words and acts of non-violence resistance, such as protests, grassroots organizing and civil disobedience in the struggle for civil rights. He dedicated his life to achieving equality and justice for all Americans of all colors.

At a time when our world has been overcome with violence, the time is now to remember Dr. King's message of non-violence and his vision of a peaceful world.

Students are asked to create art work that reflects Dr. King's vision for peace, equality and unity. Artwork can be based on any quote or speech of Dr. King and may include a depiction of Dr. King but is not required.

CONTEST RULES

1. Artwork must be created entirely by the student. One entry per student.
2. Identifying information such as the student's name or school name cannot be placed on the front of entry.
3. Any media may be used to create an original artwork (e.g. crayon, colored pencil, paint, charcoal, collage, assemblage, ceramics, clay, sculpture, traditional and digital photography, etc.) Chalk and charcoal entries must be sprayed to avoid smearing.
4. Two-dimensional entries must not be larger than 18x24 inches (excluding matting).
5. Two-dimensional entries we suggest be "MATTED." This process can be as simple as attaching the entry to a complementary piece of construction paper or cardstock; you do not need to have it matted professionally. This extra support helps to protect the artwork, as entries are moved a number of times.
6. Three-dimensional entries are restricted to a base size no larger than 12x12 inches and 5 pounds in weight.
7. Complete the attached registration sheet and attach it to the back of the student's entry. Don't forget to include the Parent's signature.
8. The Student Information Form must accompany the artwork. It can be attached to the back of the art entry. Use clear glue stick. Staples will damage the artwork.
